CAMILLE'S SIDEWALK CAFÉ OPENS FIRST EATERY IN NEW JERSEY

Morristown, NJ-Camille's Sidewalk Café has become Morristown's latest eatery, offering the community an exciting array of tasty and healthful dishes served for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Camille's is a national chain of fast-casual restaurants which was formed in 1996 by David and Camille Rutkauskas of Tulsa, OK. The Morristown location is the first to open in New Jersey, with nine more scheduled to open in the next 18-months.

A series of low-carbohydrate wraps are among the menu items the new restaurant boasts, along with sandwiches, salads, and panini's. Other choices health-conscious consumers have include chicken salad and apple-walnut tuna sandwiches, Poblano chicken Natsu-wraps, vegetable panini's, as well as a number of soups and salads. The restaurant also offers several gourmet coffees along with smoothies made with real, fresh fruit, and much more.

Camille's Sidewalk Café offers catering for breakfast, lunch, or dinner, and for business meetings and special events. A complete menu is available and includes box lunches, signature trays, salad bowls, breakfast & brunch, and dessert trays.

Located at 161 South Street, Morristown, Camille's is open seven days a week. For further information, call 973-540-9727.
